

Boyne Hockey Club

Terms & Conditions

Each year as part of the registration process all members or parents/guardians of members are required to agree to the terms and conditions of membership of Boyne Hockey Club. These terms and conditions help to ensure that we can successfully operate the club to create a safe and enjoyable environment for all of our players, families, coaches, volunteers and officers.

By completing the registration process with Boyne Hockey Club each year, all players, parents / guardians, coaches and volunteers are accepting to adhere to the policies listed below. All policies are available at <https://boynehockey.ie/club-forms-policies/>. If you have any queries relating to any of these policies, please contact Boyne Hockey Club at boynehockeyclub@gmail.com.

All data collected is used for the normal administration and management of the club. As affiliated members of Leinster Hockey and Hockey Ireland data will be shared as appropriate. During the COVID-19 emergency data will also be shared with health authorities if required.

Please note that Boyne Hockey Club has Third Party Insurance only and players are not covered under the club insurance policy for personal injuries.
